Some light damp-staining which is typical for this issue. "The Samuel J. Lewis Co of Naugatuck (formerly a woolen-knitting mill) began the manufacture of vulcanized rubber overshoes in September of 1843, under the first license granted by Charles Goodyear. The United States Rubber Co. possessed "an unsigned, undated, handwritten copy of a partnership agreement between the four Lewis brothers, Milo, Thomas, Samuel J. and William B. of Naugatuck. This document has been described as the "oldest relic in existence having to do with beginnings of the rubber industry." (History of the U. S. Rubber Co. by Babcock, 1966). This company became the Goodyear Metallic Rubber Shoe Co. and some of its buildings remained functional until the factories were demolished in 1985. By 1848, four additional firms were licensed to make rubber boots and shoes under the Goodyear patent, in Naugatuck." This marks the beginning of the worldwide rubber industry and the large factory complex which covered downtown Naugatuck for almost 150 years. (ctrubbergroup.org). Stamp cancelled and very good.

BOND FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE CATSKILL AQUEDUCT THE CITY OF NEW YORK SPECIMEN BOND FOR THE NEW AQUEDUCT

* 574
1900's. New York. Specimen bond for the aqueduct water system that currently feeds New York City. Large upper left corner vignette of an allegorical female. In 1905 the Board of Water Supply was created by the State Legislature. After careful study, the City decided to develop the Catskill region as an additional water source. The Board of Water Supply proceeded to plan and construct facilities to impound the waters of the Esopus Creek, one of the four watersheds in the Catskills, and to deliver the water throughout the City. This project, to develop what is known as the Catskill System, included the Ashokan Reservoir and Catskill Aqueduct and was completed in 1915. Punch cancelled and very fine but for a few minor edge tears at right. A scarce bond related to the New York City aqueduct water system.

 1885, New York. Bond for $1,000. Signed by Edwards Goff as President and William H. Baker as treasurer. At the top is printed "The American System of Electric Lighting". Attached coupons. Uncancelled and very fine. This is an exceptionally early electricity bond. Edison perfected the light bulb in 1879 and Bell patented the telephone in 1876; before this, electricity was not in demand by the public. Once electricity was commercially viable, the race was on to provide it for the customer. In 1880, Edison started the first large-scale manufacture of direct current generators with his Edison Machine Works, also located in New York. In Connecticut, the American Electric Company was founded in 1883 to build arcs lamps. By 1887, a couple of years after this bond was released, there were fifteen manufactures of small motors in the United States and certainly the American Electric manufacturing Company is included in that survey. Very light toning but in very fine condition. An exceptional electric-related bond.

WARWICK VALLEY RAILROAD STOCK

1880, New York. Stock for 4 shares. A fine multi-vignetted certificate. Litho. The line began operations in 1862 and "became the first in America to use refrigerated cars to transport liquid milk. Prospering and growing by leaps and bounds, under the leadership of Grinnel Burt it eventually became the Lehigh and Hudson River Railroad in 1881. It was a vital link between the western states and New England. Coal became one of its chief freights. Passengers could leave New York City at 7:50 AM and arrive in downtown Warwick by 11:10—the travel time had been cut from eight hours by horse-drawn coach to three hours fifty minutes. It was now possible to travel to the city, conduct business, and arrive home the same day—the age of the commuter was just around the corner." (albertwisnerlibrary.org). Pen cancelled and very fine.

BOSTON AMERICAN LEAGUE BASEBALL CLUB

1911, New Jersey and Massachusetts. Stock certificate for 37 shares. Green/Black. Vignette of New Jersey State seal at top center. Litho. Signed as president by JOHN I. TAYLOR, president of the team.

In January 1901, it was announced that the American League would expand eastward, establishing clubs in Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. Among those instrumental in establishing the Boston club was Massachusetts-born baseball legend Connie Mack, who personally located the site for the club's ball park, and Charles W. Somers, vice-president of the American League, who provided much of the club's original financing. The first Boston American League manager was Charlie Collins, the Boston Nationals' great third baseman, and still today considered by many to be the greatest third baseman of all time. Raids against many of the National league teams netted a formidable team, the most notable member of which was Cy Young. Young, one of the game's immortals, was in large part responsible for the early success of the team, and remains one of Boston's greatest sports heroes. The Red Sox played their first game against the Orioles in Baltimore on April 16, 1901, losing 10 to 6. They also lost their second and third games, finally winning their fourth against the Athletics in Philadelphia on April 29 by a score of 8 to 5. On May 8, before of a standing-room-only crowd of 11,000, they played their first game in Boston, again defeating the Athletics, this time by a score of 12 to 4. After the club won the League championships in 1903 and 1904, it slipped to the bottom for many years, but recovered temporarily under the steady hand of owner John I. Taylor who guided the Red Sox to four pennants and as many world championships between 1914-18. Since that time, the Red Sox, as with other ball clubs, has experienced numerous peaks and valleys in its record, but has always maintained a near-fanatical loyalty among the Sox' hard core fans. Among the baseball greats who have worn the Red Sox uniform are Babe Ruth, who won his first home-run crown while with the Red Sox, the incomparable center fielder Tris Speaker, Duffy Lewis, "Smokey Joe" Wood, Wally Schang, Carl Mays, and others too numerous to mention.

Early major league baseball stocks are rather scarce and this represents a fine opportunity to acquire a certificate from one of America's most famous and beloved teams with a long, rich tradition. Pen cancelled and very fine.

EXTREMELY EARLY TELEPHONE STOCK SIGNED BY MARSHALL JEWELL THE CONNECTICUT TELEPHONE COMPANY

* 770
1882, Connecticut. Stock certificate for 30 shares. Black. Vignette of an early telephone mouthpiece. Litho. Signed by MARSHALL JEWELL (1825 - 1883), manufacturer, postmaster general, governor of Connecticut. The world's first commercial telephone exchange was formed in New Haven (where this certificate was issued) just three years before the issuance of this stock, and shortly after Bell received his patent for the telephone. Thus, this ranks as one of the truly early telephone stocks in existence. Very Lightly stamp cancelled and Extremely Fine. $250 - up

NEW ORLEANS & OHIO TELEGRAPH LESSEES STOCK SIGNED BY NORVIN GREEN

* 771
1858, Kentucky. Stock certificate for 40 shares in the New Orleans & Ohio Telegraph Lessees. Black. Signed by Norvin Green as President. GREEN, NORVIN (1818 - 1893). Physician; Legislator; Telegraph pioneer, becoming president of Western Union. Green had been involved in the early formative years of this company and in 1853, the New Orleans & Ohio Telegraph and the Louisville and New Orleans telegraph companies merged after a period of ruinous competition. Shortly after, Green and a group of other businessmen leased these lines for operation. A series of consolidations in the industry ultimately led to the formation of Western Union Telegraph which served the entire United States - an idea that Green was amongst the first to support. A truly important individual in the development of the telegraph industry. Overall waterstaining as is typical of this issue. $300 - up

COLUMBIA TURNPIKE ROAD

1814, Maryland. Stock certificate for one share. Black with an ornate border at left. Printed by J. Robinson, Baltimore.

The Columbia Turnpike was laid out in August, 1808. It began at the meeting house in Hebron, and continued to the Clark and Gray paper mill, which then stood on the site of the Willimantic Linen Company's Mill Number One (built in 1857). This road connected with the Hebron and Middle Haddam turnpike, formed in 1802 (Route 66) The promoters of this turnpike envisaged a direct road from New York to Providence, with a regular ferry crossing across the Connecticut River.
